VOTER REGISTRATION CLOSURES MONDAY, MAY 9, 2016 AT 4:30 P.M.

Hamilton (Ohio).... A Special Congressional General Election will be held in Butler County, Ohio on Tuesday, June 7, 2016. The deadline for voter registration for those wishing to vote in the upcoming June 7th Special Congressional General Election is Monday, May 9, 2016 (30 days before the Election). Those registering after the May 9th deadline cannot vote in the June 7, 2016 Special Congressional General Election, but may vote in subsequent elections. Electors may register to vote at area Libraries, Public High Schools, Bureau of Motor Vehicles facilities, and government offices. Voter Registration Forms may be found on the Board of Elections website butlercountyelections.org under the Voters Tab. Those without computer access may call the Board of Elections at (513) 887-3700 or, in the Middletown Area call (513) 424-0469. Voters who were previously registered in Ohio and who have either changed their name or changed their address should update their voter registration by filling out the voter registration form prior to the deadline. Registered voters in Ohio may update their address online at MyOhioVote.com.

Monday, May 9th, the last day to register, the office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
